

Sir,

Inclosed You receive His Majesty's Speech to both Houses of Parliament.

His Majesty, and The Servants in his Confidence, have thought it advisable to lay the whole Business of the late & Disturbances in America before Parliament, in the Design of giving the fullest Weight to such Regulations as may be necessary.
In this Idea You will observe His Majesty has called his Parliament earlier than in Times of Peace was usual, that The & House of Commons might be full, to enter into the immediate Consideration of this Matter after The Holidays; by which Time there is Reason to expect more circumstantial Accounts than have yet been receiv'd, & it cannot be doubted but the Prudence & Wisdom of Parliament will point out the proper Remedy of those Evils, & thus the present Disturbances may be attended with one fortunate Circumstance, in

Mr. Hamilton.

producing

producing such wise & salutary Regulations, as may insure the future Tranquility & Prosperity of The Colonies.

I am, with great Truth & Regard,

Sir,

P.S.

I send you herewith a copy of the unanimous Resolution of The House of Commons for an Address to The King. - The House of Lords is still sitting.

Your most obedient humble Servant

J. S. Conway

ity

M^r. Conway Dec^r. 17th 1765
with His Majesty's speech